2019 Piccadilly Valley

Pinot Noir

ASHTON HILLS VINEYARD

The Wine Front, Campbell Mattinson - NOVEMBER 2020

92+ POINTS

“Made with both estate and non-estate fruit though it’s all from the (very) local vicinity of Ashton there in the hills near Adelaide. Spicy and alive. I like this quite a lot. It’s serious and playful at once. Beet, earth, undergrowth, robust red/black cherry, violets and then savoury/meaty strings aplenty. Tannin, threaded. Lovely to drink. Pure Ashton Hills.”

James Suckling Adelaide Hills Report, Nick Stock - JULY 2020

“This has a very attractive, fresh red-cherry, sliced-strawberry and sappy, spicy nose. Looking quite contemporary. The palate delivers soft, fleshy red cherries with a spicy thread and a vibrant, deep, red-cherry finish. Drink or hold. Screw cap.”

The Adelaide Review, Dave Brookes - JUN 2020

“The standard 2019 Piccadilly Valley Pinot Noir is one of the best I’ve seen from the winery. It is a cracker. A light, bruised purple/red colour in the glass, aromas of raspberry, cherry and strawberry burst forth followed by hints of Asian spice, ginger cake, rosewater, raspberry tart, purple flowers and some underlying amaro herb complexity, no doubt from a small percentage of whole-bunches in the ferment. In the mouth it is airy and spacious with a gorgeous clarity to its fruit profile. It flows across the palate with a pure, driven intensity. Everything is perfectly poised and in balance – savoury, restrained and beautifully composed. An absolute bargain and wonderful drinking.”

The Real Review, Huon Hooke - MAY 2020

“Plummy, sappy, ripe-fruit aromas, a bold and less-fragrant bouquet, with spices and preserved dark fruits. The wine is bold and full of flavour, a bigger style of pinot, robust and loaded with flavour as well as ample tannins. This will happily take a bit of age. Very good value.”
