

Anima Negra MUAC!

The Muac label, designed by comic artist Pere Joan, depicts a couple and the wine's name is an onomatopoeia suggesting the 'Muac!' sound of their kiss. The wine is a unique blend of 35% Callet, 35% Manto Negro and 30% Cabernet Sauvignon, sourced from vines with an average age of 20 years. Located on the island Majorca off the east coast of Spain, the DO Mallorca is the first appellation to be granted DO status outside the Spanish mainland. Wine production on the island can be dated back to 123 BC, but it is rather unheard of in international markets today. The Callet and Monte Negro grapes are native to the Balearic Islands and are light bodied with deep colour, adding the fruit elements, bold aromas and alcohol to the wine produced. These two varieties are usually blended with Tempranillo or Cab Sauv's which provide the necessary structure, tannins and weight to the wine. You can drink this slightly chilled to just below room temperature in the next year.

Varietals: Callet, Manto Negro, Cabernet Sauvignon

Region: Mallorca

Alcohol: 13.5%

Price: $18

Eyes

Medium purple core that you can see through, and fades to a red kool-aid colour.

Nose

Right away this is bright and juicy with red fruits.

There are both sweet and tart red berries: cranberry, currant, strawberry and raspberry. Secondary earth notes show as dried herbs and brush.

Mouth

On the palate, the wine loses some of the tart flavours and shows more of the strawberry and raspberry.

The body is medium-light weight with smooth tannins and balanced acidity. There are some flavours indicative of the oak aging for 5 months in French barrels, vanilla and light spice.

Food Pairing

A vegetarian rice dish with eggplant and beans flavoured with Moroccan spices.
